The Parenting Center and the Elementary School PTAs will present Joel Haber, Ph.D., the author of Bullyproof Your Child for Life, to speak about elementary school bullying.

A clinical psychologist, Dr. Haber has devoted more than 20 years to the identification, prevention, and reduction of abusive (emotional and physical) behaviors – from childhood through adulthood and in many settings including schools, camps, home, and the workplace. This presentation is for parents, however 4th and 5th grade students are also welcome to attend with their parents.

CLINTON SCHOOL'S RELATED ARTS BACK-TO-SCHOOL NIGHT

Wednesday, October 28, from 7:00 to 8:30 pm
Clinton School Art and Music rooms, Library, and the Gym

Come join our art, music, library, Spanish, and physical education teachers as they demonstrate and ask you to participate in the activities your children are learning to enhance their educational, creative and team-building talents.

Parents in K-1, 2-3, and 4-5 groups will rotate through the activities to get an idea of our related arts, world languages, library/media, and physical education curricula. Because of space restraints, this evening is for parents only.
